Resolution Re: Implementation of Distinctive Hallmarks of Excellence Approved by Board August 12, 2008

The Burlington School Board directs the administration to report on its implementation of distinctive hallmarks of excellence for the October meeting of the curriculum committee beginning Oct. 2009. The report should include current efforts, future initiatives, and a list of requested resources and cost estimates for each school and program.

The Board shall review its own contributions to these distinctive hallmarks of excellence each year and set goals for the following year.
