Literature Circle Notes: Connector

Name _____ Date _____

Connector: Your job is to connect what you are reading with what you are studying in this or other classes. You can also connect the story with events in your own life or the world outside school as depicted in the news or other media. Another valuable source of connections is books you've already read this year. Connections should be meaningful to you and those in your group.

Sample Questions

- What connections can you make between the text and your life?
- What other places or people could you compare this story to?
- What other books or stories might you compare to this one?
- What other characters or authors might you compare to this one?
- What current trends or events are related to this section of the book?
- What is the most interesting or important connection that comes to mind?
- What is the connection that no one else but you can discover?
- How does this section relate to those that came before it?

Write your discussion questions here; write your responses to them in the main note-taking area to the right.>>>>

_____

Assignment for Today: page _____ — page _____

Topic to be carried over to tomorrow:

Assignment for Tomorrow: page _____ — page _____

Here you should review, retell, or reflect on what you read so far. (Use the back if necessary.)